January 2007 Newsletter

Our first Annual Friends of Camp Perry Snowflurries Shoot is now in the books with some 102 men, women and youngsters taking part. The event was held Saturday, November 25th and attracted shooters from all over Ohio and several surrounding states. We were blessed with sunny skies and mild temperatures (thanks to our President, Port Clinton Mayor Tom Brown who was in charge of the weather).

We're happy to report that Friends of Camp Perry added an additional Fifty-Two new members from those taking part in the shoot. Welcome to you all and keep spreading the word through your clubs, newsletters and E-mails.

Each shoot consisted of 40 rounds from the prone position at pop-up targets at varied distances. Most participants fired from three to five of the 40-round shoots. Many fired perfect scores (40 hits out of 40 shots), one of the youngest being 16-year-old Glenn Dutro from Zanesville, Ohio. Accompanied by his father, this was Glenn's first time shooting pop-up targets and he received a Special Certificate and a U.S. Flag flown over the Capitol from Congresswoman Marcy Kaptur's office.

Eleven-year old Adam Dennis from N. Canton was there with his father, Scott Dennis, a Lieutenant with the North Canton Police Department. Both enjoying firing at the pop-ups and are looking forward to attending more of our shooting events next year.

The best shooters outfit was a complete U.S. Army fatigue uniform (steel helmet, boots, pistol belt, canteen, first-aid pouch, M-1 rifle and all) worn by Ed Pavisch of Parma, OH. A medical supplies salesman who shoots in many matches, Ed wears his authentic uniform at various events as a tribute to men and women serving in our armed forces.

Besides the great weather, a terrific range and good company, hungry shooters enjoyed the brats, dogs, and chili, served by CMP's Kathy Williams and her family. We hope you enjoyed the shoot and we'd welcome comments and suggestions for future events.

Special thanks to Ralph Reechman and High Power Director Barb Smith and their crew from the Ohio Rifle & Pistol Assn. who put on an organized, safe and enjoyable shoot. Thanks to Camp Perry Post Cmdr. Col. Jim Chisman, 200th Red Horse Squadron Cmdr. Col. Dewey Perkins, and their staffs, the CMP and their staff, Friends VP Jim Hansen, Treasurer Mark Putnam, Members Everett Woodell, Dan Foote and Chic Elum.

All the proceeds from this event go into the Friends treasury to be used on projects to support Camp Perry, the military units on post and their families. The next meeting of Friends of Camp Perry will be held 7PM Thursday, January 25, 2007 at the CMP Headquarters building. Planning will continue for commemoration of the 100th Anniversary of Camp Perry and nomination of officers for 2007 will take place. Happy Holidays to all!
